Work of Enlarging Organization, As Ordered At Annual Meeting, Put Under Way.

WAR RELIEF REPORTS READ

New Officials Authorized By

One million members are wanted by the American Red Cross in place of the 25,000 now carried on the roles, and, under the reorganization, which was accomplished at the annual meeting yesterday, plans for the enlargement of the organization will be started at once.

The strength of Red Cross organizations in other countries and the necessities of the American organization, formed one of the chief features of the final session of the annual gathering at Rauscher's last night. Miss Mabel T. Boardman, with a set of charts, ex- be paid. plained the situation and the causes which made necessary the reorganiza-

Norman Hapgood detailed some of the work of the committee of mercy which looked after noncombatants, especially in Belgium, Serbia, and Armenia; Miss Arne Morgan made a report on the activities of the committee, which was engaged in providing work, making clothing, etc., for those thrown out of employment by the war; Julius Gold-zier, of Chicago, told of the work done by the German-Austrian Relief Committee of Chicago, and Mrs. Ethelbert Nevin explained what had been done with the French emergency wounded fund. Former Ambassador Myron T. Herick was mable to present his report on the war relief clearing-house, but the report was ordered placed on the records of the organization. Emest P. Bicknell, national director, made a brief statement of the Belgian relief work. Norman Hapgood detailed some of the

New Officials.

The election of new officials in accordance with the new by-laws adopted at the morning session, was accomplished by the central committee at a special meeting yesterday afternoon. The new meeting yesterday afternoon. The new nosition of vice chairman of the central committee, who will be the executive head of the organization, and to whom the central committee will delegate its nowers in time of emergency, was given to Mai. Gen. Arthur Murray, U. S. A., retired, who also was chosen to act tem-porarily as national director for military relief.

To Keep Skin Healthy, Youthful, Wrinkleless.

Now that the social season is here, he especially careful to keep your skin in fine condition. You know how curspicuous complexion defects appear under the bright light of the drawing or ball room. Also how very evident are some makeups when similarly illumanted. I have discarded cosmetics entirely believed. ated. I have discarded cosmetics en-tirely, using a process which gives far better results, and which leaves no trace on the skin. At night I smear on a thin coat of ordinary mercolized wax, washing it off next morning. This gradually obsorbs the devitalized par-ticles of surface skin; just as gradu-ally the more youthful skin beneath comes forth, providing a complexion as clear, smooth, and delicately tinted as clear, smooth, and delicately tinted as a young girl's. Get an ounce of mer-celized wax at your druggist's and try this remarksble treatment.

Remember, too, that wrinkles, even the finer lines, are not easily concealed in a brilliantly lighted room. You can quickly obliterate these hateful marks by hathing your face in a solution of powdered saxolite, I oz., dissolved in a lifeli hazel. 12 pint. Selected to Carry On Work.

The years before the war's depression put a temporary quietus on the lingle of money in the Street, the annual fund for the Stock Exchange employes amounted to from $11,000 to $15,000, and clerks and other private employes received bonuses equivalent to a week's salary. Those gifts will be equaled or exceeded this year out of the millions that have poured in with the return of prosperity to the Street.
